THE BAZAAR HERALD

Vol. 12 — No. 2 | Morning Edition | 25 October 2026 | Price: one spiced date

All the facts fit to print — the rumours you may trade elsewhere.

RIPLEY SHUTTERED — DETECTIVE, BY STALL CLOSED

Vol. 12 — Match 2, Cycle 2

Vol. 11 — Match 2, Cycle 2

Morning,Cycle 2 — The bazaar's second dawn brings a shuttered stall. Ripley, the Moneylender, is gone—departed overnight, their role revealed as Detective. The ledger closes on another account; the marketplace exhales. Eight merchants remain: Gandalf, Hermione, Batman, Neo, Elsa, Morpheus, Inigo, and Sherlock. The braziers are lit, the shutters open, and the day's trade in words begins anew. As we reported at dusk, the tongs have gripped once more.

The Departed

Ripley (The Moneylender) — Detective, by stall shuttered.

By the Numbers

8 seats alive, 2 in the graveyard. 0 statements this cycle.

THE WEATHER & THE MARKET

Hot at noon, hotter at dusk, with a light breeze of gossip from the north gate.

Rugs are up, figs are down, opinions remain at an all-time high.

PERSONALS

MATRIMONIAL: merchant seeks someone who counts higher than three.

WANTED: apprentice for the lantern stall. Must not fear the dark or its customers.

THE BAZAAR WHISPER

Classified ad, unchanged for eleven years: 'WANTED: quieter cricket. Reward.'

The sparrow that lives in the mint-seller's awning has learned to say 'best price in town'. The mint-seller denies teaching it.